IX. Data Protection

1. Pursuant to the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 ("RODO") taking into consideration of the principles under the act on mass event safety, data obtained in connection with the organization of the festival will be processed by the Organizer who is the controller of such data (the Organizer's details have been provided in Chapter I).

Personal data acquired in connection with the entry to the territory of the festival, within the scope of services provided by the Organizer and meeting the statutory obligations, is processed based on Art. 6, sec. 1, letter „a”, „b”, „c” and „f” GDPR, respectively, in order to:

- a) in order to meet legal obligations resulting from the generally applicable provisions and binding the Organizer (including the act on mass events safety – processing is effected to prevent and combat crimes and offences related to such events), for the purposes of filing complaints, to provide information at the request of public authority pursuant to special provisions, e.g. the police, prosecutor's office, court (Art. 6 (1) (c) GDPR);
 - b) in order to protect the life and health (notification rescue officers about an accident) (Art. 6 (1) (d) GDPR);
 - c) due to the legitimate interest of the Organizer respectively in the form of the following objectives: to control and verify rights – to prevent fraud (including reporting such incidents to the police or the prosecutor's office); to possibly determine, investigate or defend against claims of data subjects (Art. 6 (1) (f) GDPR);
 - d) use and dissemination of the image, if the consent is required – based on the expressed consent (Art. 6 (1) (a)) and in the event such consent is not required due to the provisions of Art. 81, sec. 2 of the Act on Copyright and Related Rights based on the Organizer's legitimate interest for the promotion of festivals and the conducted business activity (Art. 6 (1) (f) GDPR).
2. Depending on the scope and purpose of the data being processed, it may be transferred – under the rules provided for by law – to other entities that will process it within the scope of a given processing purpose, respectively (data recipient):
 - a) entities providing legal assistance – to fulfill rights stipulated for by the law, secure rights and claim damages under a contract and handle complaints;

- b) in each case, to state authorities or other entities authorized under the provisions of law to perform obligations imposed by the provisions of law on the Controller, such as the police, prosecutor's office, emergency services;
 - c) recipients (viewers, Internet users), including via the Internet, marketing and information campaigns within the scope of the use and dissemination of images of festival participants; Data is made available to third parties only under the terms and within the limits permitted by law.
3. The obligation to present the document confirming identity results from Art. 9 of the Act on Mass Events Security.
4. Personal data is stored for the period not longer than it is necessary to achieve the objectives described above – including proper functioning of the Controller's activities, taking into account deadlines for the limitation period of claims and at the same time maintaining the accountability principle, subject to the last sentence. Pursuant to Art. 118 of the Civil Code: „If a special rule does not provide otherwise, the limitation period is six years and for claims for periodic benefits and claims related to running a business – three years. However, the end of the limitation period falls on the last day of the calendar year, unless the limitation period is shorter than two years.” In turn, for data processed based on the granted consent – it will be stored until the consent is withdrawn (the consent may be withdrawn); whereas in the event of processing of this data based on the legitimate objective of the Controller – until the objection (or equivalent statement in this respect) is raised, unless the provisions of law entitle the Controller to further processing of such personal data despite raising such an objection. Information, including personal data, regarding mass events security is subject to immediate removal from the data set if its processing is prohibited or has become obsolete or proved to be untrue.
5. The Organizer informs that it has appointed the Data Protection Officer who can be contacted in writing to the email address: iod@energylandia.pl or to the correspondence address of the Data Protection Officer: IOD ENERGYLANDIA - al. Płk. Beliny Prażmowskiego 69/4, 31-514 Kraków. Data subjects may contact the Data Protection Officer in all matters related to the processing of their personal data and exercising their rights under the GDPR.
6. The Controller also informs the data subject about:
 - a) the right to demand from the Controller access to personal data relating to the data subject, rectification, deletion or limitation of processing or the right to object to the processing, as also the right to data transfer – unless the provisions of law limit these rights in a given case, and of the right to lodge a complaint to the supervisory body – the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection
 - b) that where the processing takes place on the basis of a declaration of consent (legal basis Art. 6 (1) (a), respectively – a person expressing such a consent has the right to withdraw the consent at any time without affecting compliance with the law of the processing which had been made on the basis of a consent before its withdrawal (if withdrawal of such consent is possible);
 - c) that at the end of the storage period personal data will be deleted in accordance with the provisions of law.
7. The Controller does not make decisions in an automated manner in the sense of the GDPR.

X. Final Provisions
